

Servant's Corner

January 2011

The Spiritual Discipline Of Service

By Rich Henderson, Director

The start of a new year is a good time to set goals. The most important goals we set will be those that keep with Paul's command, "discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness" (1 Timothy 4:7).

For many Christians, what comes to mind when we think of spiritual disciplines are things like: prayer, Bible study, worship, fellowship, fasting, solitude, etc. One spiritual discipline that rarely makes the list is service. Did you know that for centuries the Church has recognized service as a spiritual discipline? In particular, service is the spiritual discipline that helps us to cultivate the virtue of humility. We can become more humble as we develop a lifestyle of service.

For 2011, in addition to goals like, "I will read the Bible daily" and "I will start every morning with prayer" why not include this goal, "I will discipline myself to serve?" Love INC can help. If you are looking for service opportunities with people in need, talk to your church's Contact Person or call our Business Line at (408) 723-9203. Have a blessed 2011.

Servant's Corner

January 2011

The Spiritual Discipline Of Service

By Rich Henderson, Director

The start of a new year is a good time to set goals. The most important goals we set will be those that keep with Paul's command, "discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness" (1 Timothy 4:7).

For many Christians, what comes to mind when we think of spiritual disciplines are things like: prayer, Bible study, worship, fellowship, fasting, solitude, etc. One spiritual discipline that rarely makes the list is service. Did you know that for centuries the Church has recognized service as a spiritual discipline? In particular, service is the spiritual discipline that helps us to cultivate the virtue of humility. We can become more humble as we develop a lifestyle of service.

For 2011, in addition to goals like, "I will read the Bible daily" and "I will start every morning with prayer" why not include this goal, "I will discipline myself to serve?" Love INC can help. If you are looking for service opportunities with people in need, talk to your church's Contact Person or call our Business Line at (408) 723-9203. Have a blessed 2011.