The Biblical Mandate To Help Those In Need

By Rich Henderson, Love INC Director

Is helping people in need an optional activity for a Christian? If it is an optional activity, it's not something we will be held accountable for when we stand before the judgment seat of Christ to receive rewards for our service here on earth (1 Cor. 3:10-15, 2 Cor. 5:10). The following seven verses convince me that serving those in need is not optional, but part of the normal Christian life. Commentary on these verses can be found at: loveinc santaclaracounty.org under the "resources" tab.

Proverbs 29:7 The righteous is concerned for the rights of the poor, The wicked does not understand such concern.

Jeremiah 22:16 He pled the cause of the afflicted and needy; Then it was well. Is not that what it means to know Me?" Declares the Lord.

Matthew 5:16 "Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven"

Gal 6:10 So then, while we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to those of the household of the faith.

Titus 3:8b so that those who have believed God may be careful to engage in good deeds. These things are good and profitable for men.

Titus 3:14 And let our people also learn to engage in good deeds to meet pressing needs, that they may not be unfruitful.

Hebrews 13:16 And do not neglect doing good and sharing; for with such sacrifices God is pleased.
